A Note From Pastor Andrew

In a recent conference the question was asked, "Why are you Christian?" What an interesting question to be posed. A question we may take for granted, but one that absolutely defines us when we think about it. Why Christian? What are you about and how are you living your life energized by your faith? Where does Jesus fit into your life in general and your church life? Where does CTK fit into your faith and how can you nurture your faith being a part of this church? Why are you Christian? What makes you Lutheran? How are you living your identity? Some simple yet complex questions, somethings I look forward to hearing about from you. Be blessed.
